‘The candle of hope is the source of light
For success in life
So don't lose it
Failures try to blow it out but try to guard it with both your hands
And remember that failure will never fail you,
If your determination to succeed is strong enough’

Dear Parent

For a student, Holidays matter. They broaden horizons and create memories that last a life time. Provide a break from everyday stresses and strains and create memories that last a lifetime.

Summer Vacation is the time for students to rejuvenate, rewind and part themselves from the jeopardy of working at the time when mercury is at the top. It facilitates them to experience adventure and thrill in recreational activities and enjoy and relax with no stress of studies. The fun and frolic in carefree environment enthralls them with vibrant spirit to return to their classrooms with a renewed focus on their work. It is the best time for parents to support and compel their children to replace the boredom with myriad summer activities to grow exclusive and be creative in every respect.
